

photo by Mikayla Whitmore

We're giving away 30 free field trips to K-12 classes across the Las Vegas Valley, courtesy of UNLV's Marjorie Barrick Museum of Art and the Meow Wolf Foundation.

Each field trip includes a guided tour of the Marjorie Barrick Museum of Art's new exhibition, Contemporary Ex-votos: Devotion Beyond Medium, a hands-on art workshop, and bus transport to and from the Museum.

If you're an educator who would like to find out more, join us for an information session at the Marjorie Barrick Museum on Friday, May 10, from 4 to 6 p.m. Enjoy refreshments, view the exhibition, and hear more about the guided tours. You'll also be invited to sign your class up to a priority list for one of the field trips. Please RSVP for this session at barrick.museum@unlv.edu. You can park for free on the UNLV campus after 1 p.m. Friday.

Teachers who aren't able to attend the information session will still be eligible for field trips. Contact the Museum at barrick.museum@unlv.edu